Delta Iota Chapter

A Brief History of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

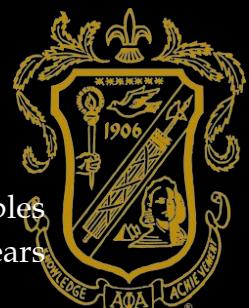

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated, was established on December 4th, 1906, at Cornell University, where seven visionary students of African descent established the organization with a commitment to scholarship, fellowship, and universal love. Since its inception, the fraternity has consistently emphasized the importance of academic excellence and a steadfast dedication to community service.

As the first intercollegiate fraternity for African American men, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. has played a crucial role in advancing the causes of African Americans and people of color globally since 1906. With a presence spanning over 800 chapters worldwide, the fraternity's mission is to inspire the ambitions of its members, preparing them for significant contributions to humanity, freedom, and the dignity of the individual. The fraternity aims to encourage the highest and noblest form of manhood while aiding downtrodden humanity in its pursuit of elevated social, economic, and intellectual status.

About Delta Iota Chapter

In the heart of New Jersey, the distinguished Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Delta Iota Chapter, proudly uphold a legacy of leadership and service. The Delta Iota Chapter, established on February 10, 1950, as the 97th House of Alpha and the first African American fraternity at Rutgers University, has been a cornerstone in fostering a community that values education, leadership, and service. The chapter has consistently upheld the ideals of Alpha Phi Alpha through initiatives like the national program "Go to High School, Go to College," which actively supports minority high school students in their educational journey and smooth transition into higher education. Over the past 75 years, Delta Iota has positively impacted countless lives through educational programs, community service projects, and the development of young men into leaders.

As we celebrate 75 years of continued service and leadership, we remain dedicated to the principles that have guided us since our founding, and we look forward to building on our legacy in the years to come.
